MY DREAM JOB WITH THE NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS
By Jim Murphy

Tuesday, March 27, 2017 at 7:00 p.m.
Boyden Library, 10 Bird Street, Foxborough, MA

Have you ever wanted to step into the New England Patriots Locker Room? Well here is your chance.

Come to the Foxborough Historical Society meeting on March 27, 7pm at the Boyden Library Community Room in Foxborough.

Jim Murphy, long time Foxborough resident, will present his experiences at this dream job. He has been with the New England Patriot's team for 13 years, working alongside players, coaches and staff. He will share his experiences from week long participations in Super Bowls (4) to visits to the White House and to celebrations at Ring Ceremonies.

You will have an "inside view" through Jim's stories as well as a chance to view Patriot memorabilia and take part in questions and answers session.

See you there.

OUR NEXT SOCIETY MEETING WILL BE ABOUT THE CIRCUS ON APRIL 24th

PROGRAMS OF INTEREST AROUND FOXBOROUGH

N. Attleborough Historical Society: Sunday, March 18, 2018, 2:00 p.m. Bliss Family History. David Bliss comes from a long line of history in Attleboro. He said he can trace his family back to English immigrants in 1636. David will tell us of how his family went from farmers, since 1636, to an ice cream franchise, since 1928, to the present.
